Washington. D. C., Nov. 27.

It was indicated here to-day that Ambansador Child was instructed to make his statement of the American position early in the proceedings at Lausanne that the American aide memoire should become a matter of record before any Power started a drive for bargaining.

Officials refuse to concede there is ground for the argument that this country is seeking privileges without assuming responsibilities. It is pointed out that this country seeks no privileges but merely assests its rights under the principle of the open door and that there is no evasion of responsibility.

The statement of Ambassador Child will make it impossible for any Power to say that the position of the United States has not been stated.

This Government holds that its stand on the freedom of the Dardanelles does not involve any interference in territorial adjustments but is merely a corrollary of the open door-of commercial equality.

London, Nov. 27.—The conflict between the Government and the unemployed may be carried further to-morrow owing to the arrest to-day of the Rev. T. E. Pickering of Sheffield, describing himself as a Christian Communist, who will be arraigned on a charge of obstructing the police. Pickering has been speaking at unemployed demonstrations. The delegation representing the unemployed is persisting in its demand to see the Prime Minister, but Mr. Bonar Law reiterated his refusal to receive a deputation. According to the London County Council the number of persons receiving the poor law relief due to unemployment has increased by 20,000 in the last Mx weeks. The tinemployed in Great Britain now exceed 1,400,006.

British Oil Man's View.

Appeals come from every part of Anatolia, where whole Christian communities are migrating and where the American Near East Relief is working heroically to overcome almost insuperable obstacles, including the removal of orphans for great distances to the sea.

Radiographs received to-day indicated that a critical situation was developing with surprising suddenness: he whole interior is blanketed with snow, adding immeasurably to the misery of the exiles. A wireless from the destroyer Barry said:

"Flye hündred Christians are arriving at Samsun daily from parts unknown."

Another, from the Barry, relayed from Sivas, in the interior of Anatolia, said:

"Ten thousand Christians and two thousand orphans trudging through the same from James H. Crutcher, at Samsun: "Can you take a thousand mountain children? If not, it means their end."

One from the destroyer Lawrence came from Americans at Trebizond, deciaring: "We cannot hold up evacuation of Trebison dorphans much longer. We are overwhelmed by arrivals from the interior. Instruct Immediately."

The destroyer Overton, stationed at Mersina, received a radiograph from Chrystle Murphy of New York-"Not a ship in sight for 5,000 refugees; where can they so?"

Charles Thurber of Manchester, N. H., sent a measure: "Murt have, flav."

Without one influential representative of Parisian society or a member of his immediate family present, following his relatives' objection to the marriage, the young Prince Jerome Gaetan Joachim Napoleon Murat threw down the gantlet to social France to-day when he married Mile. Nicole de l'Espec, the béautiful daughter of a retired French general, in the fashionable Church of St. Philippe de Roule.

In the marriage party were the Prince and his bride. Count Guy de Pommereu and the bride's father. Outside the church was a crowd of admiring shopgirls and curious Parisians.

In spite of the brilliantly lighted church, with ushers attired in gold braided costumes, beribboned coats and plumed hats, and a few minor figures of society behind the pillars, the marriage was no more inspiring than that of one of the bourgeoisle.

Princess Murat's opposition to the match has been evidenced from the first. The bill for a $5,000,000 loan to Liberia to redeem bonds and make internal improvements practically was killed today when the Senate by a vote of 42 to 33 sent it back to the Finance Committee. Insurgent votes contributed to the action.

These Republican Senators joined the Democrats in voting to send the bill back to the committee: Cameron (Aris.), in Capper (Kan.), Fernald (Me.), Harreld (Okla.), Jones (Wash.), Ladd (N. D.), La Follette (Wis.), McNary (Ore.), Nicholson (Col.), Norris (Neb.), Poindexter (Wash.), Sutherland (W. Va.) and Watson (Ind.).

Senator Watson (Ind.) voted to recommit the bill in order to be in position to move within a day or two to reconsider the vote. Republican leaders intend to make another effort to pass the measure when all the absentees in favor of the bill will be rounded up.

PRESIDENT APPEALS FOR THE SUFFERERS

Sets Dec. 3 as Emergency Day for Near East Relief.

Washington, Nov. 27.—President Harding to-day issued an appeal to the Governors of the States for the observance of next Sunday, December 3, as "Near East Emergency Lay." "The need as revealed in the latest cable reports from Grecian territory and the Near East far exceeds all previous calculations made for the relief of this crisis," the appeal said. "The response to date has been altogether inadequate. I am sure the people of the United States will grasp the magnitude and pathos of a situation involving the absolute known destitution of over a million and a quarter woman, children and old men.

"I therefore make this supplemental appeal at this season of thanksgiving for God's blessings to us for the human beings who are sufferers in the stricken area.

Massachusetts 'Tech' Scientists Say Navy Man Tells Nothing New.

Special Dispatch to THE New York Herald.
Boston, Now. 27.—Whether or not Capt. T. J. See, American naval officer, has, as asserted, discovered the secret of the age—the cause of gravitation—scientists at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology to-day declared that See's claims are bosh.
"Magnetism, Capt. See states, is a million times more powerful than gravitation, but that is not new," said one professor.

million times more powerful than gravitation, but that is not new," said one professor.

Capt. See's claimed discovery was made known in a dispatch received from San Francisco, where the captain is Government astronomer at the Mare Islard navy yard. Capt. See announced his discovery in a lecture before the California Academy of Sciences.

Discovery by Capt. See of the cause of magnetism, which also was asserted in the lecture, led to the finding of a definite connection between magnetism and gravity, he said, both due to invisible ether waves trayeling across the heavenly spaces with the speed of light.

Capt. See, who has been doing research work in magnetism and gravity for forty years, said his theory was a distinct development of Newton's law of gravitation. Magnetism, he explained, is 1,000,000 times more powerful than the corresponding force of gravitation.

Capt. See demonstrated during his address that a small magnet, when suspended by a thread near a larger one, is pulled bodily toward the nearest pole of the larger magnet. Yet he showed that, while the nearer pole has the greater power, the remoter pole of the larger magnet actually pulls back on pole of the larger magnet. Let make the greater power, the remoter pole has the greater power, the remoter pole of the large magnet actually pulls back on the opposite end of a magnetic needle suspended by a thread about the center. The result is to make the lines of force tension lines, stretched like taut ropes. At the equator, therefore, the two poles of the earth's magnetism being equally distant attract equally in opposite directions. But at the poles the needle stands on end and is pulled downward bodily by the magnetic force. By an extension of the theory of the earth's magnetism by Gauss, celebrated German mathematician, in 1838, Capt. See draws two conclusions: First, that magnetism is due to waves, the rotary motion of the ether particles being about the lines of force, which is also confirmed by Faraday's experiment of the magnetic rotation of a beam of polarized light (1845); secondly, as magnetism is connected with gravitation by See's mathematical law of 1922, it follows that gravitation also is due to waves. lowa that gravitation also is due to waves like those of magnetism. "Ether waves," said a Technology scientist, "can be used to cover a mul-
